The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum, all demand a remter and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cutteura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt.
Ho statement is made regarding them
that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness,
the power to afford immediate relief,
the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great seconomy, have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of ard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

the civilized world.

The grandest testimonial that can be offered the Cuticura remedies is their world-wide sale, due to the personal recommendations of those who have used them. From a small beginning in the simplest form, against prejudice and opposition, against monied hosts, countless rivals, and trade indifference, Cuticura remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, in fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale. In every clime and with every people they have met with the same reception. The condness of the earth are the only limits to their growth. They have conquered the world.

Baker, living at Tustin and Aura streets, in Pendleton, says: "A year ago this coming April, while living in Seattle, Wash., I fell from a staging to the ground, 12 feet below, and struck on my back. I was laid up for five weeks in bed, and ever since then my kidneys have been affected. The secretions were highly colored and contained a sediment like brick dust. I had diszy spells and headaches and dull aching pains through my loins and kidneys and back. I procured Donn's Kidney Pills

JUDGE GEORGE OF PORT-LAND, INTERPRETS LAW.

Any Form of Gambling is Contrary to the Judge.

In a decision which members of the bar say is one of the most com-prehensive relative to gambling gambling known to the annals of jurisprudence. Presiding Judge George of the circuit court yesterday denied the application of M. G. Nease for an order en joining Sheriff Word from holding possession of the premises of Warwick Commission Company, says the Oregon Daily Journal.

Judge George held that gambling exists whenever anything of value is wagered on an event or act in which the element of chance enters. Selling pools on races he declared to be an infraction of the Oregon statute governing gambling, as well as a violation of that section which prohibits anything outraging public decency or subversive of public morals.

He held that the city council has no authority to license poolrooms, be-cause conducting them is in violation of the statute. The possession of such a license will not afford the offender immunity from punishment. The moral side of the case was ex-patiated on at length.

The court stated in two paragraphs of the decision that a court of equity will not interfere with public official in the performance of the funcshown that he is exceeding his authority, and asserted that the extraordinary power of injunction will not be exercised in the case of a man engaged in a questionable and unlawful occupation who finds himself in conflict with the sheriff,

To say that the opinion has created sensation would be to put it mildly. The gamblers expected an adverse de-cision, but not one so sweeping. The emphatic language used by the court and the reasons given for the opinion have destroyed their last vestige of confidence in affairs so shaping themtives that an "open town" will again one of the most important results following the decision, it is learned, is that the damage suits against Sher-iff Word will in all probability be abandoned. Several prominent lawyers have refused in unequivocal terms to take such cases on contingent fees, demanding that the cash be put up before they enter any of the damage suits. One prominent lawyer said he did not care to have his name connected with a gambling case under any consideration, in view of Judge George's decision and what sems to be the sentiment of a large majority of the residents of the city.
